THANK YOU

A HUGE thank you to those stallholders that braved the weather last Sunday and saw out the day. Although the numbers of customers attending showed they weren't quite so brave, those that came were very grateful, many specifically mentioning this to us at the info stand and there were many mentions of their gratitude on social media. It was also extremely heart warming to see those stallholders that pitched in and helped other stallholders that struggled to set up in the wind and rain. Community is what we are all about.

MEMBERSHIP

Membership has now dropped for the second incremental price drop as is normal at this time of year and is now just $62 (concession $51). Please make sure you are promoting membership to your customers who are not already customers as this income stream is vital to the market. Memberships can be purchased online at the Membership Kiosk inside the centre of the pavilion.

STALL FEES

A reminder that the rebate period on stall fees finishes at the end of June. All stall fees will revert back to the non rebated rates as of 1 July 2022. Ongoing stall fees will be advised once the 2022/23 budget is finalised.

STAFFING

We often get asked if we know anyone that can help out stallholders when staffing is an issue. Usually we do a quick ring around to our friendly peeps until we find someone and can help out that way. We have now started a register of people that can be contacted so don't hesitate to shout out if you need help. And of course if you have staff that don't work for you every week that would like to work and you can recommend, let us know and we can add them to the list. Disclaimer: Payment negotiations will always be between the individual and the stallholder and it is up to the stallholder to decide if the potential staff are appropriate for the position. We will keep you posted as we develop this further.
