ORPHANAGE POP UP MARKETS

In order to make the Pop Up Orphanage Markets on 4th and 11th September a success it is important that we have as many stallholders as possible participate. Last year we had a great commitment by many stallholders and we are hoping that you will join us this year. Please consider joining us for both days. Complete the survey for attendance here

CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR

This Sunday, our EO, Christine will be heading around and asking you when you think we should trade for this Christmas and New Year. Give it some thought and share your ideas with her on Sunday so we can make some plans.

WEIGHTS

Just a reminder that if you are selling something preweighed it needs to be the weight advertised or more. Your scales also need to be accurate so customers aren't paying for produce they don't receive. The ASFM team now have a set of calibrated and certified weights which we will be randomly using to check your prepacked products and your scales.

EMAIL

Yesterday, Thursday 7th July, an important email containing essential information about the upcoming bump out of Stirling Angas/Kingsway area was sent to all stallholders. Please make sure you have received it and read it as it contains information you will need.

RESPONSIBLE PACKAGING

A reminder that all stallholders are required to adhere to our RESPONSIBLE PACKAGING POLICY. "ALL stallholders must use and offer EXCLUSIVELY, Certified Commercial Compostable AS4736, coffee/drink cups (including sampling cups), cutlery (including tasting) and straws. Non-compostable produce barrier bags, carry bags, coffee/drink cups (including sampling cups), cutlery (including tasting) and straws will no longer be able to be offered at the market by stallholders. Produce and carry bags must be both Certified Commercial Compostable AS4736 and Certified Home Compostable to Australian Standards AS5810" You can read the full policy in the link here
