LOSS OF STOCK

Again a stallholder has lost a large amount of stock because their power was accidentally disconnected. Accident or not, this type of thing should not happen and the financial loss was significant. Please be careful and respect the rights of other stallholders to leave their stalls safely within the market.

ELECTRICAL EXTENSION CORDS

WARNING. A number of inside stalls are still using electrical cords lent to you by the RAHS on return to the current location in September. These need to be handed in at the close of market this Sunday 20 November so please remember to bring replacement power cords with you this week. All electrical goods will be unplugged from ALL RAHS extension cords remaining in place on Sunday 27th November immediately after the market closes. It will be your responsibility to prevent stock loss by replacing them beforehand.

ADDITIONAL STAFF

At the request of numerous stallholders, we put out a call for people interested in work on Sundays and/or at farm level. We now have a small database of interested people. If you are in need of staff and are interested, please contact Carol on cmcgrane@adelaidefarmersmarket.com.au and she will send you the list. These have not been interviewed or checked, that is up to you to ascertain their suitability.

INVOICING

This month, stallholders will be issued with invoices for those days already scheduled for attendance for the first three Sundays of December. Additional invoices will be issued for Saturdays 24th and 31st December as we get closer and confirm attendance. Invoices will be required to be paid before the date as per usual.

NON ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS

If for any reason an outdoor stallholder cannot attend a market day, they must make arrangements to move any of their equipment stored in the Stirling Angus Pavilion either in the week before or prior to 8am on the market day. ASFM staff will not be able to move it for you.

REMINDER - WILL YOU BE CHRISTMAS & NEW YEAR TRADING?

We now need to know if you will be trading on the dates of Saturday 24th December and Saturday 31st December (Please note we are closed on Sundays 25th December and 1st January). We want to make these market days successful so the more stalls that can attend given the length of notice given, the better. If you haven't already done so, please let us know NOW by completing this survey HERE If you have not done so, please complete this ASAP. So far we only have 31 responses! :(
