

Candidates Campaigning and Canvassing for Votes - ASFM Election Guidelines

Campaigning at the Market:

- All candidates may have printed copies of their own candidate profile as submitted with their nomination at their stalls or tables. Candidates/and or their stalls can campaign for themselves only and not for other individuals or groups. Printed material promoting other members (or groups of individuals) who are standing for election are not to be distributed or displayed by any other stallholders, market members or their representatives.
- Candidates can campaign from their stalls during market opening hours at the Showground Farmers' Market on Sundays 13, 20 and 27 September 2026. Stallholder candidates must remain within the boundary of their stall while campaigning to avoid impacting on other stallholders or market customers.
- If a candidate is not a stallholder, they may secure an area equivalent to no larger than one stallholder site with a trestle table and promotional material at the Market and campaign for votes from within this area on all or any of these Sundays 13, 20 and 27 September 2026. This site will be set up adjacent to or as near as possible to the Information Stand.
- Candidates may request an opportunity to address the election forum to be held on Sunday 27 September by sending such a request in writing by email with the subject heading "Election Forum" to admin@adelaidefarmersmarket.com.au. If no such request is received an Election Forum will not be held.
- If any such request is received, candidates will be provided an opportunity to speak at an election forum to be held at the Adelaide Showground Farmers' Market after the close of the market from 1:00pm on Sunday 27 September 2026 at the market kitchen or similar approved area.
- Candidates will be allowed 5 minutes each to address the audience to outline why they are standing for election and what they will bring to the ASFM committee. A maximum of 20 minutes total will be provided at the end of the forum for questions and answers to all candidates.
- Candidates are to limit their public campaigning at the market by the methods detailed above and at the times and dates outlined.

Compliance:

- All stallholder candidates must abide by ASFM Stallholder Rules and Responsibilities and code of conduct.

- Failure to comply with these guidelines may result in candidates being ineligible to stand for election at the AGM.

Complaints regarding any breach of these guidelines or other matters relating to the 2026 ASFM committee election should be directed to the Public Officer in writing by:

- email 'Attention Public Officer' to admin@adelaidefarmersmarket.com.au
- by hand in a sealed envelope addressed to the Public Officer via the Information Stand at the market during the election period.
